

Hearing Conservation Course Summary

Length of Course: 2 hours

Course Description:

This interactive course takes a practical perspective on noise and hearing conservation. The program provides an understanding of how we hear, how our hearing is damaged and most importantly the steps to prevent hearing loss

Topics include:

- Understanding sound, noise, frequency and how we hear
- Determining hazards of noise, how hearing is damaged and understand the impact of noise on our body
- Conducting work place noise evaluations and recognizing the types of controls available
- Evaluation, selection and use of various hearing protection devices
- Introduction to the legislation and codes that apply to noise

Target Audience:

- Managers
- Supervisors/ Foreman
- Safety Program Administrators
- Human Resource Professionals
- Safety Committee Representatives
- Anyone with an interest in safety training