

NFPA 70E Arc Flash Safety Awareness -Course Summary-

Length of Course: 4 hours
Course Objectives: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> There is an estimated 9,600 serious electrical shock and burn injuries each year in the US. This NFPA 70E Arc Flash Safety Awareness course is designed to meet or exceed the requirements of a "Qualified Person" as defined in the standard.
Topics include: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Safety related work practices Maintenance Special equipment requirements Installation What is NFPA 70E? Why is NFPA 70E compliance important to you? What is an electric arc flash/arc blast? How can you protect your self and your workers? What are Hazard Risk Categories and how do they apply to providing protection?
Target Audience: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li style="width: 50%;">Safety Professionals <li style="width: 50%;">Utility Workers <li style="width: 50%;">Electrical Workers <li style="width: 50%;">Public Works Employees <li style="width: 50%;">Maintenance Workers
Pricing: $75 per participant (Safety Partner™) $110 per participant (Non-Partner)	Multiple participant savings * (Total Seats)	Discount
	5-9 per class	5%
	10-24 per class	10%
	25-49 per class	15%
	50-75 per class	20%
<small>* Multiple participant savings available to Platinum Safety Partners only.</small>		