

Safety Fundamentals[®] Course Summary

Length of Course: 8 hours

Course Description:

- The Safety Fundamentals course is designed to teach participants to develop and manage an effective safety management system within their own company. This course is the starting point for participation in the Safety Partnership[™].

Topics include:

- Benefits of safety and loss control
- Introduction to OSHA legislation
- How to establish organizational leadership and commitment
- How to conduct a comprehensive hazard assessment
- How to control hazards
- How to develop and implement an inspection system
- How to develop and implement an incident reporting and investigation system
- How to develop and implement a training and orientation program
- How to develop and implement an emergency response plan
- How to administer the overall safety system
- Audit purpose and preparation

Upon completion of this course you will be able to:

- Describe the basics of a safety management system
- Describe how OSHA relates to your safety program and find applicable legislation
- Implement the eight core elements of an effective safety and health program
- Evaluate the key processes in each core element

Target Audience:

- Owners/ Managers
- Supervisors
- Foreman
- Safety Program Administrators